Program Report:
Investment Awareness Program

Date: 16/09/2019

Organized by: Department of Commerce

Participate Students: 73

Introduction of the Program:

The Department of Commerce organized an Investment Awareness Program on 16th September 2019 to educate students about various investment options, financial planning, and wealth management strategies. The primary goal of the program was to enhance students' knowledge of investments and create awareness of the importance of financial security in their personal and professional lives.

Objectives of the Program:

1. To inform students about different investment opportunities such as stocks, mutual funds, insurance, and fixed deposits.
2. To provide guidance on financial planning and the importance of early investments.
3. To motivate students to develop a habit of saving and investing for future financial stability.

Details of the Program:

The program began with an introductory speech by Prof. Sumit Pulate, who highlighted the significance of investment knowledge in ensuring financial security and achieving long-term goals. He also discussed the need for students to understand various investment avenues available in the market.

The guest speaker, Mr. Rahul Kulkarni (General Manager, LIC), delivered an insightful session on different investment options, focusing on life insurance as a key component of a secure financial plan. He explained the benefits and risks associated with various investment tools like stocks, mutual funds, and fixed deposits. He also elaborated on how to make informed decisions while investing, considering both short-term and long-term goals.

Dr. Onkar Rasal, a dignitary of the college, shared his experience in financial planning and investments, encouraging students to begin saving and investing early in their careers to build wealth for the future.
