One-Day Educational Tour

Report

Date:- 21/09/2019

Time:10:00 am

On 21st September 2019, the college organized a one-day educational tour to Ralegan Siddhi, Hiware Bazar, and Ranjan Khalge, a historic geographical site in Parner Taluka. The purpose of the tour was to provide students with exposure to sustainable rural development practices and to understand the historical and geographical importance of Ranjan Khalge.

During the visit, students observed the innovative water management systems in Ralegan Siddhi and Hiware Bazar, which serve as model villages for sustainable development. Additionally, the visit to Ranjan Khalge helped students understand its historical and geographical significance, enriching their knowledge of the region's cultural and natural heritage.

The tour was successfully completed, and it greatly enhanced the students' academic understanding of rural development and historical geography.
