Time: 10:00 am

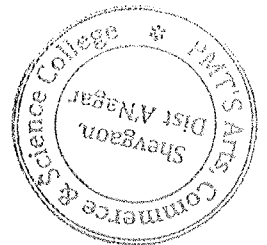

On February 1, 2021, Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Shevgaon, organized a live streaming of the Union Budget presented in Parliament for students of the Commerce and Economics departments. The event aimed to give students a direct perspective on the budgetary announcements and their national implications. The session was inaugurated by the Head of the Commerce Department, Prof. Sumit Pulate, who provided an introductory overview. The event was conducted under the guidance and permission of the college Principal, Dr. Onkar Rasal, who shared insights on the budget's importance for students' academic and professional growth.

A total of 74 students attended the event, observing and listening attentively to the Union Finance Minister, Hon. Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman, as she presented the budget. The session fostered a deeper understanding of economic planning and encouraged engagement with real-time financial developments.
