'Literary Festival-2023'

Report

Introduction:

The Department of English of Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Shevgaon, organized the 'Literary Festival-2022' from 09th February 2023 to 11th February 2023. This annual event aimed to celebrate literature and foster literary skills among students. The festival featured various activities including an inauguration ceremony, film screening, Elocution competition, and Debate competition.

Inauguration and Film Screening:

The 'Literary Festival-2023' starts on 09th February 2023, with an inauguration ceremony that marked the beginning of this exciting three-day event. Mr. Sajed Patel, the Head of the English Department, delivered an introductory speech. Mr. Patel outlined the schedule of the festival and highlighted the importance of each event in nurturing literary talents and encouraging active participation. Dr. Onkar Rasal, the Principal of the college, graced the occasion as the President of the program. His address focused on the profound impact of literature on personal and professional life. Dr. Rasal emphasized how literature can shape one's thoughts, enhance empathy, and provide insights into different cultures and perspectives. Mrs.Sunita Bhamare, who was responsible for expressing gratitude on behalf of the department, gave a heartfelt vote of thanks. The formal proceedings of the inauguration were smoothly managed by Mr, Chaitany Gangawane, who took on the role of the Master of Ceremonies.

The inauguration was followed by a film screening of Guide is a classic Hindi film released in 1965, directed by Vijay Anand, and based on the novel "The Guide" by renowned Indian author R.K. Narayan. The film is considered one of the finest works in Indian cinema and is celebrated for its rich storytelling, memorable music, and strong performances.

❖ Day 2: 10th February, 2023: Elocution Competition

The second day of the Literary Festival was dedicated to an Elocution Competition held on 10th February, 2023. The elocution competition provided a platform for students to showcase their public speaking skills. Participants delivered speeches on a variety of topics, ranging from social issues to personal experiences. The judges assessed the participants based on their pronunciation, articulation, voice modulation, and overall presentation.

A total of 31 students participated in the elocution competition. The evaluation process was carried out meticulously by a panel of judges. The results of the competition were announced towards the end of the day, with prizes and certificates awarded to the top performers.
