International English Day

Report

The Department of English at Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce and Science College, Shevgaon, successfully organized an "International English Day" event on 24th April 2022. This event was exclusively for the undergraduate students of the college.

The program commenced with an introductory speech delivered by Mr. Sajed Patel. He set the tone for the event by highlighting the significance of English as a global language and its role in academic and professional pursuits. Following this, Mrs. Varsha Darkunde delivered a guest speech. She delved into the world of English literature, discussing renowned literary figures and their influential works. Her insights provided valuable context for the students, inspiring them to explore the rich tapestry of English literature.

Dr. Onkar Rasal, the esteemed Principal of the college, graced the occasion with his presidential speech. He emphasized the paramount importance of English literature and language in today's world. Dr. Rasal highlighted the various benefits of studying English, including improved communication skills, critical thinking abilities, and cultural understanding. His speech motivated the students to embrace the English language and explore its vast potential.

The program concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Chaitany Gangawane. He expressed his gratitude to all the speakers, organizers, and participants for their contributions to the success of the International English Day event. He emphasized the positive impact that the event had on the students' understanding and appreciation of English language and literature.

Mrs. Sunita Bhamare, the anchor for the event, skillfully guided the proceedings, ensuring a smooth and engaging experience for all. Her enthusiasm and professionalism contributed significantly to the overall success of the program.

Approximately 25 undergraduate students attended the International English Day event. The enthusiastic participation of the students demonstrated their keen interest in English language and literature. The event provided a valuable platform for the students to enhance their language skills, broaden their horizons, and gain a deeper appreciation for the English language and its cultural significance.

In conclusion, the International English Day event organized by the Department of English at Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce and Science College was a resounding success. It provided a stimulating and enriching experience for the undergraduate students, fostering their passion for English language and literature. The event's focus on renowned literary figures, the importance of English literature and language, and the practical benefits of studying English resonated with the students, inspiring them to further explore and embrace this global language.

'Poetry Recitation Competition'

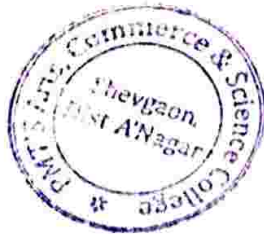

Report

The Department of English of Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Shevgaon held Poetry Recitation Competition on January 6, 2020. This event was a significant part of the college's cultural activities, aimed at encouraging students to explore and express their literary talents. A total of 18 enthusiastic students registered to participate in this competition, making it a vibrant and engaging event.

The competition was held in the college's Seminar Hall. The competition began promptly at 10 a.m. with a welcome address by the Head of the English Department, Mr. Sajed Patel. In his opening speech, he emphasized the significance of poetry as a medium for self-expression and communication. He also highlighted the efforts of the participating students, who had invested time and effort into preparing for the competition. Her words set a positive and encouraging tone for the day.

Each participant was given a specific time slot to recite their chosen poem. The range of poems was diverse, reflecting various themes, styles, and periods. Some students chose classic poems from renowned poets like Shakespeare and Wordsworth, while others opted for contemporary pieces that spoke about current issues and personal experiences. The recitations were a blend of powerful emotions, dramatic expressions, and artistic flair. Each student brought their unique interpretation to the poem they recited, captivating the audience with their performances.

The judging panel for the competition consisted of three esteemed faculty members from the English, Marathi and Hindi Department. They were tasked with evaluating the performances based on criteria such as clarity of diction, emotional expression, understanding of the poem, and overall presentation. After all the recitations were completed, there was a brief intermission during which the judges deliberated over their decisions. This gave the audience a chance to reflect on the performances and discuss their favourite recitations.

'Literary Festival-2019'

Report

❖ Introduction:

The Department of English of Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Shevgaon, organized the 'Literary Festival-2019' from December 3rd to December 5th, 2019. This annual event aimed to celebrate literature and foster literary skills among students. The festival featured various activities including an inauguration ceremony, film screening, essay writing competition, and a literary quiz competition.

❖ Inauguration and Film Screening:

The 'Literary Festival-2019' starts on 3rd December 2019, with an inauguration ceremony that marked the beginning of this exciting three-day event. Mr. Sajed Patel, the Head of the English Department, delivered an introductory speech. Mr. Patel outlined the schedule of the festival and highlighted the importance of each event in nurturing literary talents and encouraging active participation. Dr. Onkar Rasal, the Principal of the college, graced the occasion as the President of the program. His address focused on the profound impact of literature on personal and professional life. Dr. Rasal emphasized how literature can shape one's thoughts, enhance empathy, and provide insights into different cultures and perspectives. Mr. Krushna Kokare, who was responsible for expressing gratitude on behalf of the department, gave a heartfelt vote of thanks. The formal proceedings of the inauguration were smoothly managed by Miss. Shital Markad, who took on the role of the Master of Ceremonies.

The inauguration was followed by a film screening of George Orwell's renowned work, Animal Farm. This classic film adaptation was chosen for its rich literary and political themes, which resonated with the festival's focus on literature. The screening provided an excellent opportunity for students to engage with the text in a visual format, stimulating discussions on its allegorical content and historical significance.

❖ Day 2: December 4, 2019: Essay Writing Competition

The second day of the Literary Festival was dedicated to an Essay Writing Competition held on December 4, 2019. This competition aimed to test the students' analytical and writing skills, encouraging them to express their thoughts coherently on a given topic.

A total of 32 students participated in the essay competition. The essays were evaluated based on creativity, originality, structure, and adherence to the topic. The competition offered a platform for students to showcase their writing abilities and engage deeply with literary themes. The evaluation process was carried out meticulously by a panel of judges. The results of the competition were announced towards the end of the day, with prizes and certificates awarded to the top performers.

'International English Day'

Report

On Monday, 24th April 2019, Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Shevgaon, organised 'International English Day.' The program began with the traditional welcoming of guests and participants. Mrs. Varsha Darkunde, Head of the Department, provided an insightful introduction to the event. His speech highlighted the importance of International English Day and emphasized the role of English as a global language. The ceremonial lamp lighting, a significant ritual in Indian culture, marked the beginning of the formal proceedings.

Mr. Vijay Husale, the guest of honour, then delivered a compelling speech. His address focused on the global significance of English and its impact on communication and cultural exchange. He spoke about the evolving nature of the language and encouraged students to embrace English not just as a subject but as a vital skill for their future endeavours.

Following Mr. Husale's speech, Dr. Onkar J. Rasal, the Principal of the college delivered the presidential address. Dr. Rasal's speech was both inspirational and motivational. He emphasized the role of English in bridging gaps between different cultures and highlighted the college's commitment to fostering understanding of the language among its students.

The program concluded with the vote of thanks, delivered by Mr. Keshav Sase. Throughout the programme, Miss. Apurva Bhuse served as the event's anchor. Overall, International English Day at Pravara Medical Trust's Arts, Commerce, and Science College was a well-organized and enriching experience. The event successfully highlighted the importance of the English language and provided a platform for meaningful discussions and interactions.

Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan

The Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan Program was successfully conducted on 10/01/2019 with the aim of empowering young women by spreading awareness about their legal rights and ensuring their safety in society. The program brought together students, faculty members, and various dignitaries who are committed to the cause of women's empowerment.

Introduction

The program began with an introductory speech by Shinde Sir, who warmly welcomed all the participants and the esteemed guests. In his opening remarks, he briefly outlined the significance of the Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan initiative, which focuses on building confidence in young women and ensuring their awareness of the laws that protect their rights.

Keynote Speech: Asst. Prof. Manisha Sanap

The highlight of the event was an insightful speech delivered by Asst. Prof. Manisha Sanap, an expert on women's laws. She addressed the gathering on the topic of "Women Laws", emphasizing the importance of legal literacy among women. Some of the key points she covered included: The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 and how it safeguards women from abuse at home. The speech was both empowering and enlightening, providing practical knowledge to the participants about how the legal system can protect and support women in their personal and professional lives.

This programme Coordinated by Mr. Keshav Sase Kokare Krishna, who expressed gratitude to Asst. Prof. Manisha Sanap for her valuable insights on women's laws. He also thanked the participants for their enthusiasm and the organizing team, especially Sase Keshav, for coordinating the event seamlessly. The vote of thanks ended with a call to action, encouraging everyone to continue their efforts in promoting women's empowerment through awareness and education.

Conclusion

The Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan Program was a significant success in creating awareness about women's rights and the laws that protect them. The participants left the event feeling more informed and empowered to stand up for their rights and spread this knowledge further. The program reinforced the message that an informed woman is a powerful force in ensuring her safety and well-being.
