Report

Syllabus framing workshop

Basics of Human Rights

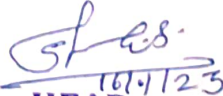

The Department of Political Science successfully organized a workshop date 16/01/2023 on syllabus framing for the subject "Basics of Human Rights." The event witnessed active participation from faculty members and was conducted under the guidance of subject experts and coordinators. The expert speakers for the workshop were Asst. Prof. Auti P. S. and Asst. Prof. Nipunge N. S., who shared their valuable insights and expertise on the topic. The session was further enriched by the contributions of committee members, including Asst. Prof. Ganesh Shelke and Asst. Prof. Paratwagh M. B. The workshop was coordinated effectively by IQAC Coordinator, Asst. Prof. Sajed Patel, ensuring a seamless execution of the activities.

The primary objective of the workshop was to design and finalize the syllabus for the "Basics of Human Rights" course. This involved discussions on key topics, objectives, and outcomes to ensure that the syllabus aligns with contemporary academic and societal needs. After thorough deliberations and collaborative efforts, the syllabus framing was successfully completed. In the curriculum workshop, the committee prepared the curriculum and approved it.

This workshop marks a significant step in enhancing the academic framework and promoting awareness of human rights education. The efforts and contributions of all participants were commendable, ensuring the successful completion of this initiative.
